Extreme Weather

What is 'extreme' weather? Why are people talking about it these days? 'Extreme' weather is very unusual rain, heat, storms etc. For example, in 2010, 33 centimeters of rain fell in two days on Nashville, USA. According to weather experts, that was a 'once in 1000 years' event. But these days, extreme weather events are more frequent. Also in 2010, 28 centimeters of rain fell on Rio de Janeiro in 24 hours, and there was record rainfall in Pakistan.

The effects of this kind of rain are dramatic. In Rio de Janeiro, landslides followed the rain. Hundreds of people died. In Pakistan, it caused floods that affected 20 million people. The opposite situation is drought, when no rain falls. Australia, Russia and East Africa have suffered major droughts in the last ten years. Another example of extreme weather is a heat wave, such as in the summer of 2003. In Europe, 35,000 people died from heat-related problems.

rainfall - осадки

landslide - оползень

flood - наводнение

drought - засуха

heat wave – период сильной жары
